"No general History of Art that has been written in English is at once so entertaining and recondite, so subtle in criticism, so clear in its definitions and descriptions, so sound in its Art theories, and so philosophical in their enunciation. The work will do much to settle the flashy conceits and beliefs of our countrymen about Art, its history and purpose. Of the last it is gratifying to observe the high range of the authors' vision: they are not merely historians and date collectors, but critics, whose efforts rarely flag, and never fail in interest with the reader." — Athenæum.

Best edition. Now scarce. London, 1842

"The Bibliomania is written in dialogues or conversations, the characters introduced are well-known book collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of Books and Book Collectors, and an account of the rarer articles in their collections, and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. It will be always consulted as an authority." — Lowndes.

"You have contrived to strew flowers over a path which, in other hands, would have proved a very dull one; and all Bibliomanes must remember you long, as he who first united their antiquarian details with good-humoured raillery and cheerfulness." — Sir Walter Scott to Dr. Dibdin.

Elegantly bound in crimson crushed levant morocco, super extra, gilt edges.*

Splendid copy. London, 1817

"This work may be considered as a continuation of the Bibliomania, the same characters being introduced in the dialogues. From the information which it contains, and the splendor of the decorations and printing, it will ever be considered as a model of excellence and good taste in typography and the arts. Both the copper-plates and the wood-cuts which embellished the work have been destroyed." — Lowndes.

From the Library of Thos. Willement.

190 Dibdin, Rev. T. F. Bibliographical, Antiquarian, and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. Portraits and numerous highly finished engravings, many being upon India paper. 3 vols, royal 8*vo. Elegantly bound in rich crimson crushed levant morocco, gilt backs, sides, and edges, by C. Lewis.*

"We think that Mr. White combines in larger proportion than any other editor with whose labors we are acquainted, those qualifications essential for a perfect editor of Shakespeare. . . . Each play is preceded by an introduction, remarkably well digested and condensed, giving an account of the text, and of the sources from which Shakespeare helped himself to plots or incidents. . . . After such conscientious examination of his work as the importance of it demands, after a painful comparison, note by note, and reading by reading, of his edition with those of Messrs. Knight, Collier, and Dyce, our opinion of his ability and fitness for his task has been heightened and confirmed. . . . . And we repeat our honest persuasiôn, that Mr. White has thus far given us the best extant text, while the fullness of his notes gives his edition almost the value of a variorum." —James Russell Lowell.

"An unsurpassed example of this monographical kind of anatomical science." — Owen's Anatomy of Vertebrates, preface, p. vi.

"The drawings of the animals in their different positions . . . are characterized by a degree of boldness that no artist would have ventured on, had he not been assured of the extent of his knowledge. — I cannot speak too highly of the painstaking and conscientious execution of this truly magnificent work." — The Field, 19th May, 1866.

807 Warren, A. H. Arms of the Episcopates of Great Britain and Ireland, emblazoned and ornamented by Albert H. Warren; 50 Illuminated Pages of Coats of Arms, with Heraldic Notes by the Rev. John Woodward. 8*vo, cloth, full gilt.* 1868

This work consists of twenty-six pages (in black letter, interspersed with wood engravings) of matter descriptive of each Episcopal See in Great Britain and Ireland, and contains fifty illuminated pages, mounted, each different in design, and printed in the best manner of Chromo-lithography; the Arms of each See being accurately blazoned and tinctured. The archives of the Heralds', Lyon, and Ulster Offices having been carefully perused with that object, and much valuable information kindly afforded to the author by many of the bishops and other learned and competent authorities.

808 WARING J. B. THE ARTS CONNECTED WITH ARCHITECTURE, illustrated by Examples in Central Italy of Stained Glass, Frescoe Ornaments, Marble and Enamel Inlay, Wood Inlay, etc. from the Thirteenth to the Fifteenth Centuries. 41 superbly colored and illuminated full-page plates. With descriptive Text. Atlas folio, half morocco, gilt edges.

LARGE PAPER. Published at £10 10*s.* London, 1851

"So elaborate, costly, and suggestive a work as that which has been produced by Mr. J. B. Waring, with the aid of Mr. Vincent Brooks, deserves to be set prominently before those who are interested in the subject of it. To produce a work by Chromo-lithography, containing forty-one large folio plates, blazing with color, on paper de luxe, solidly bound, involves no small risk financially; and the effort, when worthily made, as this is, should be supported by those who concern themselves with the arts of the country. For years our architecture has been bald and lifeless; restricted to ill-understood imitations, and permitted no aid from her children arts. The forty-one plates in the work before us are appropriated to STAINED GLASS, eight; FRESCOE ORNAMENT and FIGURES, eight; WOOD INLAY, five; and MARBLE and ENAMEL INLAY, twenty." — Builder.
